

AGREEMENT FOR COOPERATION AND EXCHANGE BETWEEN
CHIANG MAI UNIVERSITY IN THAILAND
AND SUNGKYUNKWAN UNIVERSITY IN REPUBLIC OF KOREA

Chiang Mai University in Thailand and Sungkyunkwan University in Republic of Korea enter into the following terms of agreement with respect to furthering scholarly and educational exchanges.

1. Both universities agree to cooperate in a spirit of mutual understanding and goodwill and to strengthen our ties of friendship.
2. Both universities will make an effort to promote and develop cooperation in the following activities.
 - 1) Exchange of faculty members and research fellows.
 - 2) Exchange of students.
 - 3) Exchange of academic materials, publications.
 - 4) Conducting joint research projects and organization of symposium.
 - 5) Other activities that contribute to the development of academic and educational exchange between the two universities.
3. This agreement does not include any immediate funding; however, both universities shall support their joint programs, whenever it is feasible. In general, each side shall bear the cost for its participation in projects and activities unless otherwise agreed upon.
4. Implementation of this agreement shall be discussed and agreed by both institutions. If necessary, a memorandum on implementation shall be made by the appropriate representatives of both parties.
5. Through such activities, both universities shall promote friendship and goodwill between Thailand and Korea and shall contribute to the academic and cultural benefit of both nations.
6. This agreement shall come into effect on the date of signing by both parties and remain in effect for a five-year period from the date of signing. Either university may terminate the agreement, or request its revision, in advance of the agreed expiration date by providing the other university with six months prior written notice of its intentions. In this case, the program(s) or the activity(ies) already approved by both parties shall be allowed completion under the conditions of the agreement. This agreement is subject to an automatic renewal for five years in the event that there are no requests for termination or revision.
7. This agreement is signed in two copies, the two texts being equally valid.

MEMORANDUM ON THE EXCHANGE OF STUDENTS
IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE EXCHANGE AGREEMENT BETWEEN CHIANG MAI UNIVERSITY AND SUNGKYUNKWAN UNIVERSITY

Chiang Mai University and Sungkyunkwan University engage in the mutual exchange of students (hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Program) in order to strengthen the bonds of good will and friendship between the two institutions.

1. Both institutions shall accept no more than two exchange students per year. The number of exchange students shall be equal in principle, and shall be decided through discussion between the two institutions. The enrollment period shall not exceed one academic year.
2. The home institution shall select candidates who are academically prepared to benefit from the Exchange Program, and recommend them to the host institution.
3. The period of study shall commence in either June or November at Chiang Mai University, and in either March or September at Sungkyunkwan University.
4. Chiang Mai University shall accept exchange students as non-degree students. In the same manner, Sungkyunkwan University shall accept undergraduate exchange students as special auditors and graduate exchange students as special research students.
5. The home institution shall acknowledge that exchange students enrollment in courses or conducting research shall abide by the enrollment requirements of the host institution.
6. Fees for tuition, enrollment, and the entrance examination at the host institution will be waived.
7. Both institutions shall provide in advance all necessary information relevant to study abroad under this program and available scholarships. Both institutions shall notify the home institution, in advance, of exchange (e.g. costs for housing, board, health insurance, alien registration fees, and other personal expenses) to be covered by the participating student.
8. Both institutions shall provide appropriate academic advice, orientation, counseling and guidance to exchange students during the duration of the exchange program.
9. Both institutions shall assist exchange students in locating housing in a student dormitory or other affordable and safe accommodation.
10. Exchange students shall have appropriate insurance including health, injury, damage, and any other insurance as recommended by the host institution.
11. The host institution may terminate the official status of exchange students in the following situations;
 - (1) Students are unable to continue their studies due to financial or health reasons; or
 - (2) Students fail to maintain satisfactory grades; or
 - (3) Students violate the laws of the host country, or the regulations of the host institution.

12. The host institution shall evaluate the performance of the student, prepare the student's official transcript (or an evaluation of research results) with the approval of the faculty or graduate school, and provide it to the home institution.
13. Credits for courses or research work conducted by exchange students at the host institution shall be awarded according to the standard set by the home institution.
14. This memorandum shall remain in force for a period of three years, after which it shall continue unless either party expresses, in writing, its intention to amend or to terminate it.
